The Weather Track

Author: Guillermo O. Student

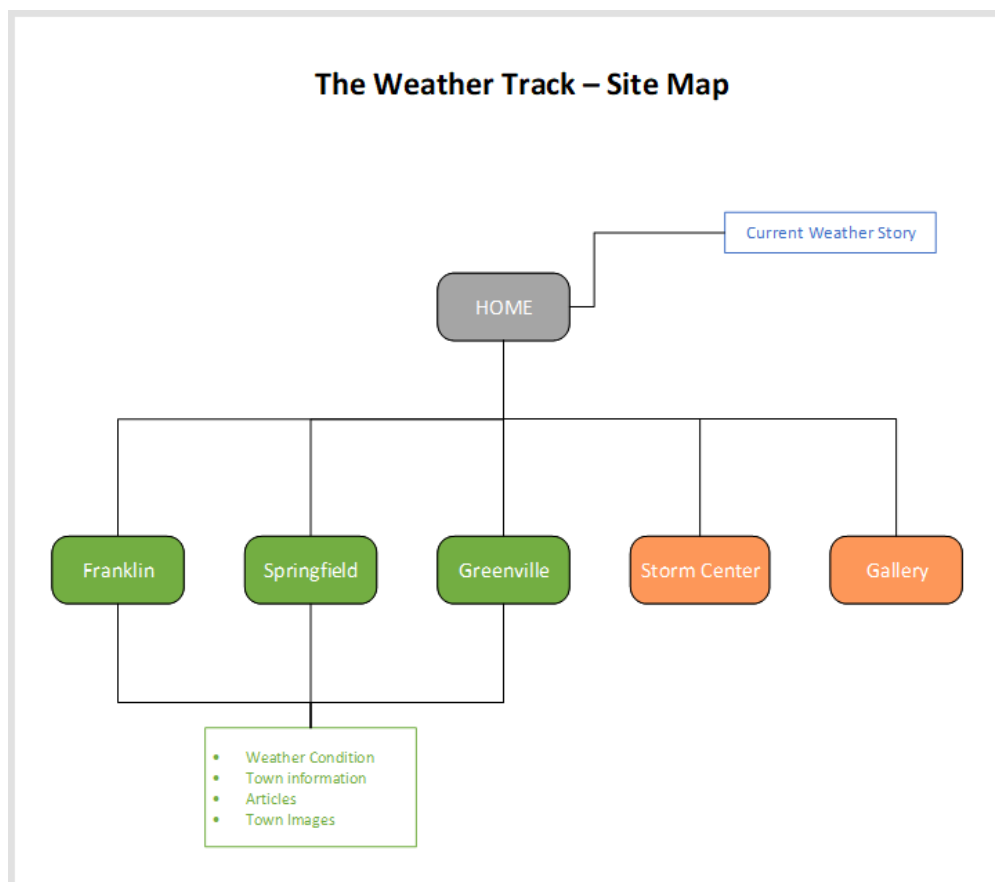

Site Purpose

- The sole purpose of the website is to provide weather information for a defined set of city towns (Franklin, Springfield, and Greenville) while providing relevant information about current weather forecast, 10-day forecast, storm alerts, and city related picture gallery. The website will also provide relevant information about events happening in the defined city towns.

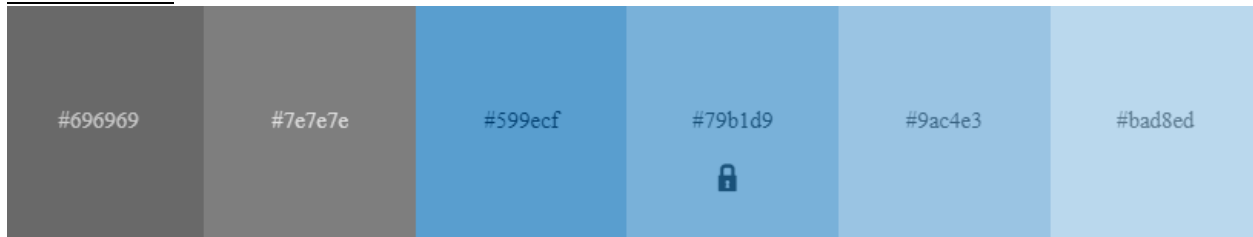

Target Audience

- The primary target audience is the residents of the city towns, as well as tourists or other outside audience interested in the weather forecast of these cities. The website will be designed in a simple way in order to appeal all levels of socioeconomical statuses. The primary audience age group will be between 18 to 50 years old.
